COLLEGE STUDENTS ASSIST IN PROGRAM

Mrs. E. A. Davis was leader of the program, "Dances and Dance Suites," at the meeting of the Music Department of the Twentieth Century Club which was held Thursday afternoon, February 2, at the home of Mrs. Paul Johnson.

Miss Nell Martindale, chairman of the Department of Physical Education for women, assisted Mrs. Davis in demonstrating the steps of old dances by using Marion Tollaksen and Lillian Orchard to do the dances. Mrs. Nelson Dawson Selgfreid accompanied at piano.

SECOND LECTURE OF SERIES IS SUNDAY

On Sunday afternoon, February 12, Miss Olive S. DeLuce, chairman of the Art Department, will deliver the second of the series of Sunday afternoon lectures which are being given during the month. The lecture will be given at 3:30 in Social Hall.

Miss DeLuce's subject will be "Modern Trends in Painting." The lecture will be illustrated with reproductions from both this country and abroad, and is a result of Miss DeLuce's experience in Europe last summer.

Miss DeLuce is a member of the Artists' Professional League. She is also listed among the artists in the American Art Annual. She has exhibited her work in Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago and New York.

The talk Sunday afternoon should be of great interest, as well as value, to the students of the college and any others who are interested in the subject of art. The general public is invited to attend.

MITZEL REPORTS ON STUDENT MEETING

The assembly last week was given over to a report of the eighth annual meeting of the National Student Federation of America. The President of the Student Council, Raymond Mitzel, gave the report. Clyde Sparks and John Henry Heath were also on the platform and were prepared to answer any questions regarding the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, where the student congress was held, or the trip which they made with Mr. Mitzel and Roland Russell to that city.

At the first plenary session of the association a discussion was held concerning the relationship between colleges of the United States and those of the Republic of Mexico. The discussion was led by a student from Mexico City. After the discussion it was decided by a unanimous vote that the two groups should hold friendly relationships.

The other discussions, which were held the following day, were:

1. Student government of colleges.
2. Womens colleges.
3. Publication discussion.
4. International relations.
5. Honor systems of colleges.

All of these discussions were explained to the students last December except the honor system. Mr. Russell was the delegate to the meeting which discussed that problem, and he was unable to be at the assembly on Wednesday.

IBA WILL COACH STAGE LINERS

Hopes of entering the National A. A. U. tournament were virtually shattered in the Bearcat camp last week, when Coach Henry Iba announced his intention of coaching the Southern Kansas Stage Lines in that basketball classic of the year.

The Stage Liners have had a strong team in the field this year, but have lost to a few major teams because they have not had a coach with the ability to handle a high calibre team. The members of the team believe that with the services of Coach Iba they have an excellent chance to win.

H. Fisher, B. S. 1932, is now a member of the Stage Lines, and has figured in the scoring column regularly. He plays at the guard position, and is well spoken of by Kansas City sport followers.

Open House Held at New Central.

Friday afternoon and evening, February 3, the Board of Education of the St. Joseph Public Schools held open house for New Central, which was opened for school on Monday, January 30. An invitation to go through Central High School Building was sent by Mr. F. H. Barbee, superintendent of schools, to President Lamkin, the members of the board, and the faculty of the College.

Miss Mattie M. Dykes, who has been unable to meet her classes because of a severe cold, returned to her work Tuesday.

Dick Baker, a former S. T. C. student, attended the Kansas City Life-Bearcat game, February 1. Mr. Baker, who is connected with the advertising department of the "St. Joseph News-Press" and "The Gazette," said that he had recently received an increase in salary instead of a reduction.

Do You Know?
1. In what year the Administration building was completed?
2. What year Resident Hall was completed?
3. What year the gymnasium was completed?

PIGGLY WIGGLY TEAM WILL BE HERE FRIDAY

FORMER BEARCAT STARS, McCRACKEN, MERRICK, DOWELL AND FINLEY WILL PLAY

Friday night will be an eventful evening in Maryville when the nationally known Piggly Wiggly basketball team from Denver invades the Bearcat basketball camp. The game is to be held in the College gym at 8 o'clock. A capacity crowd is expected.

The spectators will not only see probably the best basketball in the country but will have a chance to again witness the outstanding playing of four former Maryville cagers, three of which were All-American selections of last year. Those that were taught much of the game by Coach Iba, Bearcat mentor, include McCracken, Merrick and Dowell of last year's squad and Finley a performer here two seasons ago.

The "Pigs" have enjoyed an outstanding season losing but one game, that defeat being at the hands of the Wichita Henrys, N. A. A. U. champions. The Pigs have defeated their conquerors on two other occasions, however, and their aggregation is rated as the best of the two.

The game here Friday night will be the first of a series to be played by the Pigs on their trip east. Other games to be played include engagements with some of the strongest bidders for the basketball crown in the classic to be held at Convention Hall, March 6-11.

So far this season the Bearcats have proven that the stronger the team, the closer the score. The outcome of the game will probably decide definitely whether or not the Bearcats will again enter the National tournament.

Admission for the game is as follows:

Reserved seats 68c, plus tax 7c, total 75c General admission 50c, plus tax 5c, total 55c. Student admission 40c, plus activity ticket. "M" men 40c, plus "M" card.

Note:—College students must present activity ticket in Mr. Rickenbrode's office in order to receive a student ticket. To gain admission to the game each student must present both the activity ticket and the Piggly Wiggly game ticket.

JOHN GALSWORTHY DIES AT AGE OF 65

John Galsworthy, noted English writer and 1932 Nobel prize winner, died on Tuesday, January 31. Mr. Galsworthy was born in 1867. His death was attributed to anemia, which developed from a severe cold.

Mr. Galsworthy was outstanding as a short story writer, as an essayist, and a dramatist, but especially as a novelist who portrayed with unusual fidelity and insight the life of England's upper middle classes.

He wrote more than 50 short stories, and 25 plays, besides a large number of novels. "Flowering Wilderness" was his latest novel. The announcement that he had won the 1932 Nobel prize for literature came last November, almost on the day of the publication of his last book.

MACK GRAHAM, FORMER COLLEGE STUDENT, DIES

Mack Graham, age 24, who was a junior at the Maryville Teachers College last year, died Thursday night, February 2, in a hospital at Trenton. He had been ill with influenza, and had undergone an operation for appendicitis a week following his recovery.

Mr. Graham was president of the Theta chapter of the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity last year. He was also a member of the "M" club.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Trenton, Sunday afternoon.

Those who attended the funeral from Maryville are: Bricken, Stalcup, Cofer, H. Cofer, Bell, Blood, Carpenter, Mutti, Moore, Bruce, Mix, Harris, Ottman, Hitz, Thorp, Boyard, Kreek, and Hedge, Sigma Tau fraternity brothers; William Smith, Morris Chick, Lloyd McDonald and Carol Russell, fraternity alumni; and Misses Marjorie Constable, Nadine Wooderson, and Lois Neff.

"THE MUSIC MASTER" IS PRESENTED HERE

The play, "The Music Master," beautifully and interestingly presented in the College auditorium, Tuesday evening, January 31, by the Misner Players, nationally known company of actors, is one of David Belasco's best and most popular productions. David Warfield, celebrated actor, took the original role of the music master when the play was a Broadway success for two years. The Misner Players were the first company to secure the right to produce the play following its Broadway success.

Ernest Raymond Misner, director of the company, played the part of the dramatic little music teacher who lived in poverty, but always maintained an atmosphere of refinement in his humble living quarters. This kindly old man had but one hope in life. That hope was to find his lost daughter. However, when he does find her, a young woman living in luxury, he can not tell her that he is her father, but plans to go away alone. Not until the last scene does his misery and uncertainty change into perfect happiness. Then it is that his daughter comes to him, and tells him that he is to go with her and her husband on their wedding trip. They are going back to the old home in Leipzig which he had quitted 15 years before in search for his baby daughter.

SARA TEASDALE, LYRIC POET, DIES

Sara Teasdale, one of Missouri's poets, died accidentally Sunday night, January 29, at her apartment in New York City. Miss Teasdale, who was born in St. Louis in 1884, was a lyric poet of note.

Her works include: "Rivers to the Sea," "Love Songs," "Flame and Shadow," and "Dark of the Moon."

Gospel Team Trip

The Y. M. C. A. gospel team will go to Graham Thursday night where the college group will give a program before the Southwest district young people's meeting held under the auspices of the district council of religious education. About 100 young people from Graham, Skidmore and several rural communities are expected to attend. Fifteen will make the trip in the College bus.

The Y. M. C. A. quartet will sing, Junior Porterfield will play, and there will be speeches and devotionals.

Dr. O. Myking Mehus and family are moving this week from their home on North Main Street to 910 West Third Street.

Noble Florea, who teaches near Hopkins, attended the Kansas City Life-Bearcat basketball game.

Fred Larason, who teaches at Oregon, attended the basketball game Wednesday night, February 1.

DEAN OF COLLEGE IS PRAISED IN RECENT ARTICLE

FRATERNITY MAGAZINE GIVES INTERESTING SKETCH ON MISS SHARLEY K. PIKE

Kappa Alpha Theta, the official publication of Kappa Alpha Theta, national social fraternity for women, has, in its January 1933 number, an article about Miss Sharley K. Pike, Dean of Women of the College. The article follows:

Zest for life, buoyant enthusiasm, and a friendly and deeply sympathetic understanding of students and their interests admirably fit Miss Pike for her position at Northwest Missouri State Teachers College. A truly remarkable capacity for forming firm and lasting friendships makes her a friend of her students. In fact, Miss Pike's life, from undergraduate days to the present, has been one rich in friendships. The affection women students bear toward her is perhaps as clear an index as anything of her success as Dean of women.

Born a Coloradoan, Miss Pike was reared in Durango, which, in her own words, is "a gateway, not of the gods, but of the 'Great Southwest,' a beautifully medley of plains, mountains, extinct volcanoes, and of the mysterious Mesa Verde."

Undergraduate days at Colorado College were, to hear her tell it, a mixture of pranks and seriousness. Yet contemporary anchored her long enough to be vice-president of student government, president of senior hall, social secretary of the Y. W. among other activities.

After graduation, she became, so she says, "the traditional school marm," teaching Latin for six years in the Durango High School. "I think I did not become antiquated thereby for it was one of the most pleasant and inspirational periods of my life," she declares.

Miss Pike was adviser to the senior class and the sponsor of the dramatic club. She completed her work in English for her Master's degree at Marietta college and taught in the Department of English while working for her degree. She was also a sponsor of the Y. W. C. A. and assisted the Dean of Women. Then she became assistant Dean of Women at the University of Arizona.

In 1927, she went to the University of Illinois to teach in the English department and to continue her graduate work.

Her "rolling stone" career then took her to the Graduate School of Harvard University. She left there when, to use her own words, "the women of the graduate school made me president of the group. Realizing the jolt awaiting them upon awakening, I hurried off to Maryville, where I am thoroughly enjoying association with an up and coming, responsive student group in a charming town of southern atmosphere among whose hospitable and cultured people I have found some of my choicest friends."

Miss Pike's hobbies are books, people, exploring, winding nameless country roads in "Sandy," her car, and expressing her thought in "such poetic fashion that some day a kindly publisher may accept them."

To Theta, Miss Pike brings the enthusiasm that characterizes all of her activities.

ITALIAN WANTS 1933 TOWER FOR MUSSOLINI

From a student in Milan, Italy, has come the second response to the request which the "Tower" staff made for foreign material for the division pages of this year's junior publication. The first reply was received from China by President Lamkin.

With the material from Italy was a letter to John Lawrence, requesting that the staff send him a copy of the "Tower" to be sent by his school to Mussolini.

More material is expected soon from other foreign students.

Sigma Tau Gamma.

Science Notes

The existence of clouds at heights 15 to 19 miles high, a region of the atmosphere where clouds have never before been believed to exist, has been established by observation with photographic equipment used to measure the height of aurora, by a Norwegian professor. These high clouds have been called "mother of pearl clouds" on account of the pureness of the spectra colors with which they blow.—Science News Letter.

Thunder is seldom heard more than fifteen miles.

If a newly-discovered antidote, methylene blue, proves successful in combatting deaths caused by carbon monoxide gas and by cyanides, it is that the death rate, which now amounts to several thousand persons per year, will be notably decreased. It has been used successfully with small mammals such as mice and guinea pigs. Methylene blue is listed in the United States Pharmacopoeia as methylothionine chloride.

The North Pole is at sea level, whereas the South Pole has a mountain like elevation of some 10,000 feet.

Technocracy calculates that 4,000 men with modern machinery could have harvested the American wheat crop of 1929. This in turn, they figure, could have been turned into flour in the Minnesota mills at the rate of 30,000 barrels a day per man. In that year, 1929, we produced 154,000,000 barrels of flour, the work of only seventeen men, if you apply the technocrat's figures. But the milling industry actually employed over 27,000 men in that year.

It has been estimated that "every puff of smoke from a cigarette contains about 4,000 million separate granules of dust." It is also estimated that in the United States at least 20,000,000 tons of coal (carbon) representing a value of $40,000,000 or more, goes up the chimneys each year in smoke.

COURTESY COLUMN

Rule

In ordering a meal or a fountain drink, it is unnecessary for the girl to address the waiter. The man consults the girl as to her preference, and gives the order for them both.

Example

Of course, when we think of girls with as much initiative as "Speck" Stewart, we can scarcely expect them to sit idly by while any boy tries to assume the responsibility. But "Speck" will learn.

Miss Grace Jewell Young of Plattsburg, a former student of the College here, who is attending the Teachers College at Warrensburg this winter, is one among eight to have been entered in the Rhetor beauty contest. The Rhetor is the College year book. The staff announced that perhaps Roland Young, popular movie actor, who is a leading beauty authority in Hollywood, would judge the entries. Young appears in the picture "They Had to Get Married," now playing at the Tivoli Theater.

Guess Who?

The little blond mentioned last week is Marlon Tollackson.

This week we have in mind a person who is also smallish and blond. He is extremely youthful in appearance, and at times his conduct is youthful too. He even catches "kid" diseases. We hear that he is an excellent student. He is something of a general favorite at the dorm. The girls say he is "cute."

Writers' Club Holds Meeting.

Writers' Club met Wednesday, February 1, at 5 o'clock in Room 228. Manuscripts by Gwendolyn Meek, Lorene Buntin, Ruth Van Sant, and Grace Westfall were read and criticized. Alice May Smith and John Lawrence also attended the meeting.

STUDENTS ARE ASKED TO STUDY PROPOSED CHANGES—VOTE IS TO BE TAKEN IN ASSEMBLY

Printed in this column is the first half of the Constitution revised by the Student Council of the College. It was thought that in printing the Constitution in the Missourian the students of the College might have a copy each and it would not be necessary to read the document in assembly.

The changes in the Constitution are not radical. Much thought has been devoted to the wording and arranging of the changes. Much debating was done by the Council members in making the changes. Much debating and ranging will be done by the Student Body. It is the Constitution of the Association of the College, subject to approval or disapproval.

The last half of the Constitution will appear in the next issue of the Northwest Missourian. Save this issue and the next and bring them to the Assembly with you when you hear that the new Constitution is to be presented for your ratification.

The changes in brief, are: The name of the Body known as the Student Council has been changed to "Student Senate." The Freshmen are given two representatives beginning with the Winter quarter. There will be no carry over senators. If a senator is worthy and his class feels that he has served well, he will be re-elected; thus avoiding the continuance in office of a person who is not what he should be.

Several amendments have been added to the Constitution and they will appear in the next issue of the Missourian with the last half of the Constitution.

An International Affair

"My dear," said Mr. Nubbs to Mrs. Nubbs, "what name did I hear you call the new hired girl?"
 "Japan," replied Mrs. Nubbs sweetly.
 "And why such an odd name?"
 "Because she's so hard on china."—Woman's World.

The anthology, "American Singing," contains a poem, "In the Spring," written by Miss Mattie M. Dykes.

They were visiting friends one evening. Presently their three-year-old son became restless. The hostess, noticing this, gave him a soft rubber ball to play with. During the course of his play the ball rolled under the davenport, and the little fellow crawled in after it. Presently the hostess asked him if he saw the ball.

He replied, "No."

"Then why don't you come out?"

"I'm drawing pictures on the floor."

OF SERIES LECTURES IS GIVEN SUNDAY

COOPER TELLS OF
GIVEN OUR COLLEGE

not an end in themselves, but to an end. Tests constitute the tools of guidance. The tests for them is based upon the extension department of the College, said Sunday afternoon address on, "A Testing of Freshmen in College," was given at 8 o'clock in Social Hall as a series of public lectures in February by members of the college faculty.

Cooper discussed the guidance given to the College here. This includes a separate registration day for freshmen, an orientation course of one week for two quarters which gives one-hour credit for satisfactory completion of work and the passing of the tests. Attendance is required for the course. It deals with the following units of work as follows:

Information about the college; how to use the college catalog and how to use the college effectively; how to use the college library; college organizations and curricular activities; methods of reading and the meaning and use of scores as used by the college; the basis upon which the tests should be made; the means of securing a vocation; the profession of teaching; other occupations other than teaching.

Cooper said the College here is a member of the National College Personnel Association. The tests given here are recommended by that association.

Cooper listed the objectives of the tests as making possible a comparison of the ability of freshmen of the College with those of any other college of the country; furnishing a basis for individual counseling of students; furnishing a basis for measuring the progress of students, and giving information on the ability of the freshmen which will enable the college to more wisely determine its policies and its administrative program.

Cooper said the research is carried on in the College here to secure statistical and institutional data concerning freshmen to be used as an aid in counseling and advising students; to determine trends in the program of the college; to discover the problems immediately confronting the college.

Cooper used a number of charts and graphs showing the results of the tests of the awarding of grades by the members and the correlation of the tests made by freshmen and their intelligence scores.

An interesting thing revealed in the studies, he said, is that 26 of the highest grades made out of a class of freshmen in the fall quarter were made by students in the upper half of the class arranged according to intelligence test course. Only 11 of the unsatisfactory grades made by freshmen in the fall quarter were made by the upper half of the class as shown by intelligence tests. No student in the upper half of the class made an average of S as to his ability shown by intelligence test. The study showed that the student who ranks in the upper half of the class in ability as shown by the intelligence test course has the chance to succeed in his work as one in the lower half. An interesting point, the fall research revealed that girls made higher grades than boys taking the intelligence test course. Girls as a whole, Mr. Cooper said, rank higher in intelligence than boys.

After giving his address, Mr. Cooper said that the freshmen in College here are favorably with freshmen in other colleges throughout the country.

MEMBERS PICK WORLD'S GREATEST MEN

Members of the Social Science club picked seven Social Science majors they thought were the world's greatest character, at their regular meeting last Thursday evening.

Edison was the world's greatest character, basing his contentions on the fact that Edison's work had produced a greater number of people and the work of any other man. Merrigan held forth Disraeli as the greatest character because of his great intelligence and the kind of man that he had, and because of the fact that he was a far-seeing emper. Merrigan said Disraeli's greatness also lay in the fact that he overcame a poor environment.

Clarence Woolsey chose Benjamin Franklin because as he stated, Franklin too, overcame a poor environment, and because a great cultured gentleman, a great economist, business man, inventor, natural historian, a medical man, philosopher, essayist, statesman, and diplomat. Franklin founded the postal system, and was a renowned educator and the world's most versatile man.

Wallace Culver insisted that the great socialist, Karl Marx, would influence more men than would Jesus. Culver said Marx drew conclusions after he had studied the history of mankind thoroughly for many years. Marx, Culver said, predicted many depressions just as we are having now.

Lester Hall defended Jesus upon the grounds that Jesus had the highest ideals, and leadership. Jesus preached for race relationships and world peace, and ideals that men have never reached. As a great leader, a mighty orator, his leadership still remains. This speaker contended that Jesus had more followers, and that his ideals were the best.

Miss Myrtle McMullin presented Voltaire as the greatest, because he was the father of the French Revolution, a fighter for freedom, a scientist who attacked long-standing beliefs, and proved many of them false. Voltaire believed in the brotherhood of men, but ridiculed Christ. He was opposed to war and fought against it.

Wilbur Heekin pictured Woodrow Wilson as his choice, because Wilson was such an ideal human character. Wilson's only fault being that he was a college professor and too pure an idealist, according to this speaker. Wilson was a man of peace, an author of many books, a dealer for the people, but not with the people. America, Heekin said, has deserted Wilson's ideals.

M. I. A. A. STANDINGS CHANGE SUDDENLY

By defeating the Warrensburg Mules last Friday night, the Maryville Bearcats climbed into first place in the M. I. A. A. Conference only to have Springfield tie the standings again by defeating Cape Girardeau at Springfield, Saturday.

Both the league leaders now have an 800 per cent average, and the next two games will determine, to a great extent, the final outcome.

Maryville has one more Conference game at home. That game is with Springfield, the only M. I. A. A. team that has been able to stop the Bearcats so far this season. Many are of the opinion that Coach Iba's cagers will be able to turn back the down-state quintet on the Maryville court, as it is much larger and more the type of court that the Bearcats are accustomed to.

The remaining conference games away from home include Kirksville and Cape Girardeau. Although both of these teams are low in the standing, they are strong teams. They will do all in their power to defeat Maryville, who has held a monopoly on M. I. A. A. titles during the last few years.

MARYVILLE WINS FAST GAME FROM KANSAS CITY LIFE

BEARCATS MAINTAIN EARLY LEAD
TO SECURE A 25-15 VICTORY
FROM WORTHY OPPONENTS.

Coach Iba, of the Bearcats, evidently had the spark throttle well advanced on his basketball proteges last Wednesday night when the team defeated the fast Kansas City Life aggregation to the tune of 25 to 15. From the time she recovered the ball after the first tip-off till the final whistle, Maryville was in the lead.

With the game hardly under way, Wright broke fast for a pot shot under the basket. It seemed no great task for the Bearcats to recover the ball from Kansas City, and Hodgkinson soon hit close in for the second tally of the game. At this point St. John fouled Boswell, who converted a charity toss just before Cowden was fouled. He, also, took advantage of a free fling.

Dribbling down the floor and exchanging passes with Hodgkinson, Cowden was successful in bagging a one-hander as a result of one of the fastest plays this year. Roadcap, fast stepping forward for Kansas City, built up his team's score by hitting a field goal and a free throw. Milner hit a free throw after being fouled by Ruble, former Missouri University player.

St. John then scored for the Bearcats. Roadcap was fouled by Cowden and made his gift shot count. After the next tip-off, Hodgkinson dribbled fast to the corner and tallied from a difficult position.

Maryville's defense continued to tighten, and the visitors were forced to start shooting from long range. With one minute remaining to play Bird was inserted at center, replacing St. John for the Bearcats.

The half soon ended with the score 12 to 5 in favor of the Maryvillians.

Opening the second half Maryville received the tip-off, and after a series of passes Milner tried a long one from outside the free throw circle that zippered the cords for two points.

Roadcap was awarded a shot off Hodgkinson's technical foul, but missed just before Hawk sank a full one for Kansas City.

Boswell added more points with a side count shot in an endeavor to cut the Bearcat lead, but Lisle, substitute for Hodgkinson, made a pot-shot after a fast pass from Cowden.

Jones was substituted for Maryville as Bausch entered the game for the opponents. Bausch, jumping after a held ball, batted the ball far down the court to the fast Roadcap, who dribbled in for a neat two points.

Hodgkinson dribbled to the corner and made two points. This was followed by a good free throw at the hands of Jones. Hodgkinson soon hit again, with Ruble making a free throw.

With but two and one-half minutes remaining to play, Hawk scored two baskets in rapid succession, only to see St. John sink two free throws and thus end a game that developed into a rough one during the closing minutes.

The Bearcats got off to a fine start, and never once let down throughout the game. Determination figured greatly in Maryville's victory.

Hodgkinson was high point man for the locals, with four field goals.

It might be interesting to know that the Kansas City Life team had met defeat only at the hands of the Wichita Henrys, prior to the game here in Maryville last week. Kansas City Life defeated Warrensburg State Teachers College recently by a 43 to 29 score.

LaMar-Johnson

The marriage of Miss Maude Ella LaMar, Elmo, and Mr. Bernard L. Johnson, of Essex, Iowa, took place Saturday morning, February 4. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home at Arlington, Neb., for the present.

Mrs. Johnson has attended the Maryville Teachers College. In 1930 she was vice-president of the freshman class, pianist for the Green and White Peppers, and was chosen running center on the varsity basketball team. Mrs. Johnson is a member of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Stephen G. LaMar, director of publicity at the College, is a brother of Mrs. Johnson.

THE STROLLER

The Stroller is never invited anywhere anymore. He can't even get invited out of the library as Velma Cass and J. B. Cummins, jr., did last week.

The Stroller heard William Person say the night the Mlsner Players were here "If they named me Beverly, I'd just stop trying to act like a boy." If you remember, the name of one of the characters in "The Music Master" was Beverly.

Georgia Belle Moorshead has certainly found an easy way to solve problems. She said she worked and worked on one the other night, and couldn't get it. Then she went to bed, dreamed the solution and answer, woke up, and wrote it all down.

Dale Perkins surely is a "wow" when it comes to promoting. Anything from a rooster fight to a guinea pig race is included in "Perk's" line. Bob Glauser has improved considerably since he placed himself, body and soul, in the hands of "Perk." The Stroller understands that "Minute man" Glauser (that's what she calls him) received an unexpected letter from Lindsborg, Kansas, which made him very happy.

Pete Clark is in line for promotion also. Any other backward student wishing to obtain a little polish and shine, see Dale.

Helen Busby picks on the short boys. She had one of the office knaves running all over the building looking for John Lawrence, and when he was found and sent to the office, Helen contracted a bad case of cold feet and would not ask him to go to the pep squad dance with her. Miles Standish had the same kind of trouble, Helen, so don't be discouraged.

Leo Praisewater, the "answer to a maiden's prayer," has joined the ranks of the domestic science girls. Leo sits in the hall on second floor and checks the girls off as they pass. Good luck, Leo. We hope you find one.

Dr. Dildine was listing reference materials. He said, "There are 15 volumes in this set. Read not more than one."

The Stroller has found out who has the prettiest handwriting in school. It's Buford Jones.

The Stroller thought there must be a dog up on third floor. He found, however, that Gwendolyn Meek was whistling at someone who was still in class after the five o'clock bell had rung.

John Lawrence got a quotation from Robert Herrick slightly wrong. He quoted it thus: "Gather ye wild-flowers while ye may."

Another embarrassing situation occurred when a certain young man, in reply to a question, stated that "George VII is King of England."

The Stroller heard a heart-rending scream. Upon investigation he found that it was only Helen Grace exclaiming aloud in her excitement over a game of "cat"—if that's what you call the one where you mark X and O, and attempt to get a straight line first—with Kathryn Fossati. At least that is what he thinks they were doing.

Speaking of cats, the Stroller was strolling down the hall one evening when he met a little gray cat. The poor thing was in tears, and told the Stroller that two cruel "Knights of the Wicker Table" whose names were Bill Alsop and Dale Perkins, had put her out of Tennyson class.

A big debate was held last Friday on the question of whether Clarence Woolsey should have broken a date or not. Further information may be obtained from the debaters.

Homer Black said that he had leased the window at the top of the center stairs. The Stroller saw him there studying—at least he had a book open.

Ferdinand Glauser likes to have things "done up brown." Perhaps you noticed that he scorched his trousers when he pressed them.

Emily Jones and Helen Dougan were in such a hurry to get to the Kansas City Life-Bearcat game that they brought their supper along with them. At least the Stroller saw them eating apples or something when he got there.

Dr. Dildine was talking in history class. He was saying, "The Church looked upon the printing press as the instrument of"—when Helen Grace finished the statement for him—"the devil!"

The Stroller wonders if Wilbur Heekin could really have been in earnest the other night when he said Woodrow Wilson's greatest weakness was the fact that he was a College professor. And did Dr. Foster consider Heekin's remark to be entirely pertinent?
